Orders

The order must be placed on the online store: www.ormendes.ch/en/shop

By clicking on the "Order" button, the customer agrees to buy the products contained in his basket and accepts these GTC.

The information declared by the customer during purchase procedures are made under his own responsibility: in case of mistake in the address details of the recipient, the seller cannot be held responsible for the inability to deliver the product.

The order confirmation is published on the website. The customer also receives a confirmation that the order has been duly received by email at the indicated email address.

The order confirmation is not saved for the customer, therefore it can no longer be reopened later. If the customer wants to consult these documents, he must save them himself.

Invoicing

Shipping and packaging costs will be added to the total amount of your order, except for current promotional offers.

The promotional offers are valid while stocks last or for a limited period of time.

Product prices are indicated in Euro, including VAT.

Prices shown are subject to change. When an order is placed, the price that applies to the agreed services is the one that was applicable at the time of the order.

Payments are made only by credit card.

The amount to be paid is due immediately, the amount to be paid is charged at the time of the order.

The ordered products are sent only after confirmation of payment.

DATA PROTECTION

Our online store is reliable and Ormendes provides a secure payment system that complies with the "Verified by Visa" and "MasterCard SecureCode" standards. Only VisaCard and Mastercard are accepted. The transfer of data from your card is done through a secure and encrypted connection. Only non-sensitive data, such as the validity of the card and the name of the cardholder, remain in our database. Bank data will be not communicated to third parties under any circumstances.

Ormendes S.A reserves the right to update the available payment methods.

Cancellations and order changes

The customer cannot edit or delete the order after it has been already confirmed in his account. In case of change, immediately contact the customer service via email at:

shop@ormendes.ch. This can entail additional costs for the customer and there is no guarantee about the possibility of canceling the order if the order has already been processed.

Customer account

Customers and companies can register on the website by creating a customer account. Customer and order data are saved only for the order purposes by Ormendes SA. The customer will be required to provide his personal data (name, surname, address) and tax code accurately. Companies are required to provide their data, legal head office and VAT number.

When the buyer connects, the recorded data is proposed for subsequent orders. The customer can confirm or modify them.

Any customer who does not wish to create a customer account can continue the ordering process without registration and place an order as a guest.

The customer is required to keep his password confidential from third parties and to modify it as soon as he suspects that a third party may have accessed his password. The customer guarantees that the data provided is complete and truthful.

After entering the password, the customer can view the data saved on his account. If necessary, you can send a request to close an account by email info@ormendes.ch
